Conditions of Sale

FIRST. If there should be a dispute in regard to the bid between two or more buyers the article shall be at once put up and re-sold.

SECOND: Purchasers to give their names and places of residence and to pay a cash deposit of at least 25 per cent of the purchase money—or the whole of the purchase money if required—in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

The deposit shall apply to all purchases made at this sale, and not to any one particular lot.

THIRD. Bills payable in cash before delivery.

FOURTH. Bills must be sent for delivery of goods.

FIFTH. Goods to be removed at the expense and risk of the purchaser, on the morning following each day's sale, between nine and twelve o'clock, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid.

SIXTH. Goods not removed on the morning following each day's sale between nine and twelve o'clock remain at the sole risk of the purchaser.

SEVENTH. No claims allowed after the removal of goods.

EIGHTH. No goods delivered during the sale.

NINTH. Our record of sales in all cases final.

TENTH. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same.

ELEVEN. The undersigned are in no way liable for charges, breakage or loss incurred by the cartage contractor moving your purchases.

This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this sale without such re-sale if he thinks fit.

ANTIQUE POTTERY TEA KETTLE

Selected by Chas. L. Tiffany in China many years ago; said to be 4,500 years old.
Purchased from Tiffany & Co., New York.

Hung over fireplace of isinglass, lighted by electricity and with jet of steam introduced at bottom of kettle would create a beautiful effect.
